Report on Savitribai Phule Jayanti 20-21

Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, Borgaon (Meghe), Wardha celebrated a birthday of Savitribai Phule on Wednesday 10th March 2021.

The objective of program was to create the awareness and to recognize the achievements and significant contribution of India's First Female Teacher.

Mrs. Vanita N. Chalkh, Asst. Teacher, Yashwant High School, Yelakeli, Wardha was Chief guest for the function. Dr. R. O. Ganjiwale Principal, IPER, also present on the occasion. Program was inaugurated by lightening traditional lamp and garlanding to effigy of Savitribai Phule. Dr R. O. Ganjiwale in inaugural speech highlighted the contribution of Savitribai Phule for women's empowerment.

Guest speaker Mrs. Vanita N. Chalkh spoke about the work of Savitribai Jyotirao Phule as social reformer, educationalist and poet. Guest speaker discuss the role in improving women's rights in India during British rule, abolishing the discrimination and unfair conduct of people based on caste and gender, raising voice against caste and gender discrimination.

All teaching and non-teaching staff and students were present for program. Ms. Sadhana Gautam conducted the program and proposed vote of thanks.

Through this program student will be able to know Savitribai Phule's early life and what she contributed for society as well as for women's empowerment.
